2022 – 2023 Kiwanis Dues

Annual Dues

On October 1, 2022, Kiwanis International will begin to prepare the annual dues invoice. The invoice for your club will be based on the number of members in the club as at midnight September 30, 2022, less any members deleted up to midnight October 10, 2022.

The invoice consists of five charges

1. Annual KI dues
2. KI magazine – English Canada only
3. KI Insurance – Liability & Directors and Officers (Risk Management fee included as premium for NA Clubs only)
4. ~~Risk Management Fee~~ Canceled
5. District Dues*

The first four charges are in US$ and the fifth in Canadian $. The amounts shown below have been converted to the currency your location uses to pay dues.

There has been no increase in Kiwanis International dues or District dues however, the insurance fee has risen by five dollars for all clubs in North America. This plus the currency exchange and District Rebate may reduce or increase the actual amount due for 2022-2023 compared to last year.

The currency exchange rate was set on July 31, 2022, at 1.2809. Please note, this is an increase in the exchange rate from last year which was 1.2456

This year, the District will rebate their dues by $6 per member. It is recommended that the clubs reduce their dues by the same amount.

Club Dues and the KI magazine must come from the club's administrative account the balance owing can come from the club's service account.

All Caribbean clubs pay Kiwanis International in US$. Caribbean clubs send their dues payment to Kiwanis International in the USA

All Canadian clubs pay their dues to Kiwanis International in Canadian $.

NOTE: Canadian clubs must send their dues payment to P.O. Box 8416, Station "A" Toronto, Ontario M5W 3P1 CANADA (no courier or registered mail please)
